OUR LEGISLATURE

On yesterday, by call of the Governor of our State, our Lawmakers convened in Extra Session to consider, and devise plans and methods of financing a Road Construction Program, whereby work on our State Highway System may be enlarged and carried on during this year. There is a great problem to be solved in this Extra Session. It is a great economic problem, one of finance. There are two factions in the Legislature, those who favor a bond issue, and those who favor a Gasoline Tax, as a means of securing the money for this Road Building Program. Both favor good roads, and the building of the State Highway System as rapidly as possible.

The Bond advocates are thoroughly organized, and have been for some time, and have been quietly flooding the state with their propaganda, and waving an aggressive campaign, while the Advocates of the Gasoline Tax are not organized, certainly to any extent, and have not waged any extensive campaign, yet it is singular to note, that the Bond advocates have not increased their numbers since the last session, while those favoring a Gasoline Tax have strengthened their ranks. It does not seem therefore, that the Bond issue is so popular after all. The two factions, however, are nearly evenly matched, especially in the Senate, and we expect a battle royal.

The governor has said he will not sign a bill increasing the tax on real estate at this time. We trust, however, it will not come to a draw, but that some middle ground may be found.

Members of all our people, and we believe it should be submitted to the people to say in the coming election which method of financing they prefer, and temporary financial arrangements made until their wishes are known.

It is particularly interesting to note, however, that practically all, if not all, the counties in this Section, of the State that have gone on Bond issue Sprees, seem to have sobered up, and are now resoluting against the Bond issue and are favoring the Gasoline Tax.

Our own representatives, Senator S. L. Ferguson and Hon. J. R. Horsley, left on Monday for Richmond, to attend this Extra Session. They will both work for and vote for a reasonable Gasoline Tax, in preference to the Bond Issue, thus carrying out the wishes of our Citizens as expressed in a Mass Meeting held in the Court House some months ago.

Many of our people have a misconception of what the Bond Issue would mean. Many think it would build good roads all through our County, and other counties of the State. But this is not true. They are only asking for Twelve Million now, to finance Road Building until the next regular Session of the Legislature, which would only be the entering wedge for many more Millions they will ask for then, and would only be spent on the State System, which roads will be of little benefit to the great mass of our people living in the rural sections.

Read and study this question from every angle, Mr. Citizen.

"When Smith Stepped Out"

Appomattox people wishing for a few hours of clean amusement will receive a rare treat when they see "When Smith Stepped Out" a most amusing comedy in 3 acts at the Goldwyn Theatre next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

The faculty of the Appomattox Agricultural High school has assembled an array of dramatic talent for this production which promises to offer laughs a plenty in the many situations developed by "The Smith's Stepping Out".

The cast of characters include Uncle Bill, John Curtis Caldwell; George, his nephew, Heebert Pulliam; Keene, a detective, Prof. Tyler Akers, Bob, a wooer, Adam Clement; Nellie, Miss Aileen Houser; Muriel, her younger sister, Miss Elaine McDearmon; Miss Winslow, a spinster, Miss Edith Kruger; Hilda, a maid at the Smith's, Miss Dorothy, Terrell.

This entertainment will be given for the benefit of the High School Library fund. Admission will be adults 50c, children 35c.

Considerable time and effort has been expended in producing this play. Let's all spend Tuesday night at the Goldwyn Theatre.

FOR SUPERVISOR

To The Voters of Stonewall Dis., Appomattox County:

I hereby announce myself a candidate to succeed myself as Supervisor for Stonewall District, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary to be held in August. I have faithfully endeavored to serve your best interests as Supervisor, and to expend the road funds as equally and economically as I could in each section of my District, and to the very best advantage. I trust my course has met with your approval, and that I may have you ur supports, and if elected again I promise in every way to look to and work for the best interest of my District and County.

Very truly yours,
S. E. ANDERSON.

Saith the Pessimist.

LESSON FOR MARCH 11

JESUS IN GETHSEMANE

LESSON TEXT—Luke 22:39-46, 54.
GOLDEN TEXT—Christ also hath once suffered for our sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God.—1 Peter 3:18.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt 4:3-11; 26:36-46; I Cor. 10:13; Heb. 4:15, 16.
PRIMARY TOPIC—An Angel Helps Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Prays for Strength.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How to Stand the Hardest Test.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Submission to the Father's Will.

I. Jesus at the Mount of Olives (v. 39). He went from the upper room under cover of night to the garden of Gethsemane. Gethsemane means oil press. It is a place where the oil was crushed out of the olives. There is a striking significance in Jesus' coming to this place. Olive oil was preferred to any other kind for food and lighting. The bruising and crushing of Christ in this garden has yielded the largest blessings in the world. It has provided food for men's souls and light for their lives.

II. His Companions (vv. 39, 40). Peter, James and John, who had been with Him on the Mount of Transfiguration, were permitted to go with Him into the deep shadows of the garden. He took those who were best able to appreciate the meaning of the tragic hour to be His sympathizing companions. This was needed to prepare them as His witnesses. Then, too, as a human being He craved sympathy.

Jesus Praying (vv. 41-44).

1. He Withdrew From the Disciples (v. 41). Even these disciples of the "inner circle" could not go with him. He took himself away from them for He must be alone in this darkest hour. He kneeled down and prayed.

2. What He Said (vv. 42-44). "If thou be willing remove this cup from me." The cup did not mean the physical sufferings of the cross, though they were very great. He did not now desire to escape from the cross and thus stop short of His redemptive work, for this was the supreme purpose of His coming into the world (Heb. 2:14). It was rather the revolution with sin in becoming the world's Redeemer. By virtue of the holiness and perfection of His nature, He could do nothing else than shrink from it. He saw in this bearing of the sins of the world the turning away of His Father's face. Knowing what was before Him, He came to Gethsemane for this hour, and in it He consciously brought His human will into accord with the divine will. Though the cup was bitter he bowed in submission to the Father's will. So great was this agony that His sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. In this crucial hour an angel from heaven strengthened him.

IV. The Disciples Sleeping (vv. 45-46). They had boasted of their fidelity, but could not watch with Him for an hour. He had issued a word of warning to them, but they were so benumbed with sorrow that they failed. He gently rebuked them and commanded that they rise and pray lest they enter into temptation.

V. Jesus Betrayed (vv. 47, 48).

1. The Betrayal (v. 47). This was done by Judas, one of the twelve. He had enjoyed the most intimate relations with the Lord, eating with Him, listening to His teaching, witnessing His marvelous miracles and enjoying His confidence.

2. The Sign of Betrayal (v. 47). It was the kiss, the token of the most tender affection and friendship. He now degrades it by making it the token of disloyalty and treason. Jesus' words to this infamous disciple shows the infinite tenderness of His heart. If Judas had been at all human this pathetic appeal would have smitten him to the very heart. How many professing disciples have proven their disloyalty to the Master and even betrayed Him. All who bear the name, Christian, and especially ministers and teachers who deny the virgin birth, Deity and vicarious atonement of Christ are following in the footsteps of Judas. May each one inquire, "Lord, Is it I?"

VI. Jesus Arrested (v. 54).

The multitude around with swords and clubs led by Judas invaded the sacred precincts of the garden and arrested Jesus and brought Him before the high priest.

PIPPEN SPEAKS

Men have asked me to speak thru the columns of this paper. In a few weeks I shall stump the county.

The last Assembly reduced the number of school trustees to three, who in this county are LeRoy Smith, Allen O'Brien and J. G. Davidson. The School Board was authorized to employ a clerk and fix his salary the assumption being that said salary would conform to the volume of work One hundred dollars per annum would be a handsome salary for the work in Appomattox.

N. R. Featherston finally offered to do the work for nothing. He was refused and Leslie Ferguson was employed at $600.00 a year. Leslie, of course, being closer to the throne, I hear that J. O. Davidson voted for Featherston at no salary. It's a case of looting the treasury.

The writer will make startling revelations from the platform about the new school building here at Appomattox, and give also other facts.

Having been reared on a farm, having worked one year in wholesale grocery, one year in cotton oil and five years in banking business, two summers in auditing one summer in a packing house, one summer in State Senate of Alabama, one year on farm after maturity, three summers as a lad in my father's merchandise store, six months in army, having dealt in cattle and horses, having written insurance for three years, having spent four years in college and several months in a business college, and having traveled much I therefore think I am qualified for the position I seek.

Remember in voting for E. R. Abbitt you are voting for a Circuit Court appointment, for he will finally resign.
